Like soldiers walking into a minefield, there are some things in life that are unseen but deadly. Just because you may be unaware of something dangerous, it doesn't mean it cannot affect you. There is an old saying "what you don't know can't hurt you." Although it is true that knowledge can bring with it pain, it is much better to be forewarned about danger than to ignore it. In Keith's latest study, If God is For Us, he leads us through the scriptures that help us see that God is for us, and what this means as far as our Christian faith and walk. We have no need to fear when we are assured that God always has, is, and always will provide and protect us. Keith's study brings freedom so that Christians can focus on what God has placed them here for, instead of worrying about spiritual attacks. You will understand the enemy's schemes and learn to walk in your victory. If the Bible were a mountain range, it is said, Romans 8 would be its highest peak. I can say after reading this study that Trillia Newbell is a sure-footed mountain guide that will help you climb this great passage and get some of its best breathtaking views of God and our salvation in Christ. I highly recommend this volume! -Tim Keller, cofounder, Redeemer City to City What would change if you really understood all that God has done and is doing for you? Sure we know in our head that God is for us, that there's great hope in his relationship with us and salvation for us, but sometimes these truths can be hard to believe in the midst of exhaustion, busyness, and a world of spiritual and physical opposition. If God Is For Us is a devotional Bible Study on Romans 8 designed to cement in your soul the great truths of our salvation and an understanding for how the Holy Spirit guides our new life in the Spirit, all found in this beloved chapter of Scripture. Why just the one chapter? The simple answer: there's so much there! It's no wonder that so many Christians list Romans among their favorite books of the Bible and Romans 8 as their favorite in the book. Romans is packed with profound truth after profound truth which are then followed up with life-changing promise after life-changing promise. In this 6-week study, Trillia Newbell will walk you through Romans 8 and help you cement deep inside yourself the scandalous truths of our great salvation, our inheritance, the assurance of our faith, and ultimately the love of our good Father. Each week will include: 5 daily readings out of Romans A devotional for each daily reading Questions for reflection and study If you've experienced the comfort of Romans 8 before, but want to plant it more deeply in your person this is the Bible Study for you. And it's great for individual or group settings. If you're ready to live a life that shouts: "God is for me, who can be against me," let's get started today. Christ Is for Us invites readers to explore God's saving and redeeming love through a seven-week study of the Scripture readings for Lent and Easter. Key Bible readings call us to embrace God's salvation and the new life offered to us through Christ. This study is based on the Revised Common Lectionary scriptures for Year A. Each chapter includes commentary and reflection on readings from the Old Testament, the Epistle, and the Gospel reading for that day. Each chapter also includes questions for personal reflection, questions for group discussion, and suggested activities to facilitate group study. Coffin deals with the most controversial social issues facing U.S. churches--abortion, sexism, homophobia, racism, poverty, the environment, disarmament--and, using a biblical perspective, presents a vision for the future that will promote discussion, challenge assumptions, and deepen our passion for the possible. Simon Ponsoby presents 52 inspirational chapters, bringing Paul's greatest letter to life, and blending careful theological and historical detail with illuminating application. Romans is intellectually and theologically massive. Augustine of Hippo, the great architect of Western theology, was converted while reading Romans. Martin Luther's encounter with the text led to a personal revival and the European Reformation, and Dr Martyn Lloyd-Jones refused to teach on Romans for decades until he had grappled with and understood chapter 6. This passionate, illuminating devotional will prove a potent means of grace and growth. A fun, practical guide that reveals the essentials of good fiction and memoir writing by exposing the most common mistakes literary writers make. All great works of fiction and memoir are unique-but most bad novels, stories, and memoirs have a lot in common. From clunky dialogue to poorly sketched-out characters, sagging pacing to exaggerated prose, these beginners' mistakes drive any agent or editor to their stock rejection letter, telling the aspiring writer "Thanks, but this isn't for us," and leaving many to wonder what exactly it is that they're doing wrong. Veteran writing coach, developmental editor, and writing instructor Jessica Page Morrell will fill in the gaps in every rejection letter you've ever received. In Thanks, But This Isn't for Us, Morrell uses her years of experience to isolate the specific errors beginners make, including the pitfalls of unrealistic dialogue, failing to "show, not tell," and over-the-top plot twists. These are just a few of the problems that keep writers from breaking through with their work. Sympathetic and humane, but pulling no punches, Thanks, But This Isn't for Us shows writers precisely where they've gone wrong and how to get on the right track. In sixteen to-the-point chapters, with checklists, exercises, takeaway tips, and a glossary, Morrell helps readers transcend these mistakes so that they don't have to learn the hard way: with another rejection letter. More than 2000 years ago, God gave His son Jesus Christ to us as a gift and out of love. "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life" (John 3:16). With Jesus, man's reunion with his Creator became a reality. "Clap your hands, all ye people; shout unto God with the voice of triumph" (Psalm 47:1). Today, God has another gift for everyone especially to those with a child like faith. "My Heavenly Adventures with God" is a book of a four year old girl as told to her mother is a perfect gift for everyone; it encourages us to have a faith like a little child. Jesus said, "Let the children come to me, for the Kingdom of God belongs to such as they" (Mark 10:14). Jesus told Nicole to write this book to share their priceless adventures together in His paradise. Through this book we can freely and personally feel, see, touch and love Jesus Christ. "We love him, because he first loved us" (1John 4:19). We can transport ourselves from earth into heaven and taste and see God's goodness in His Kingdom. "But whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life" (John 4:14). By reading this book, we can truly experience Heaven and be reminded of God's promise, the second coming of Jesus Christ...very soon. "Be of good courage, and he shall strengthen your heart, all ye that hope in the Lord" (Psalm 31:24). Argues that the American health care system can be fixed, offering suggestions for getting more in return for health care spending, expanding what is covered, offering incentives for quality care, budgeting responsibly, and creating a sustainable system. Invites readers to prayerfully reflect on Pope Francis's words from his Apostolic Letter, Patris Corde, on St. Joseph, and to apply them to our lives. Enriched with beautiful, colorful fine art illustrations. When the coronavirus pandemic took hold early in 2020, charities were among the first to respond to the resulting social and economic distress. But recent scandals and a more critical climate have overshadowed the vital role they play. What Have Charities Ever Done for Us? rebalances the debate, using case studies and interviews to illustrate how charities support people and communities, foster heritage and culture and pioneer responses to crucial social, ethical and environmental questions. It also sets the historical context, examines cases that have attracted criticisms, analyses the political response and considers how the governance, transparency and independence of charities could be improved. Charities at their best are the conscience of society and benefit most people at some point in their lives. This book brings to life the breadth and depth of their work and the contribution they make to social progress. This volume provides an analysis of divine aseity in Karl Barth's thought and appreciates the vital role that this doctrine can play in contemporary theology. Brian D. Asbill begins by setting the general theological context, first through a broad sketch of the development of Barth's understanding of the relationship between the life of God pro nobis (pronobeity) and a se (aseity), and secondly through the examination of the basic theological convictions that guide his approach to the divine being in Church Dogmatics II/1. The second section, 'The Love and Freedom of God', turns to the dialectical pairings which guide Barth's accounts of the divine reality in his earliest dogmatic cycle (The Göttingen Dogmatics §§16-7) as well as in his most mature treatment (Church Dogmatics §§28-31). Particular attention is given to how these themes arise from revelation and relate to one another. In the final section, 'The Aseity of God', Asbill identifies this doctrine's basic features and primary functions. Divine aseity is characterized as the self-demonstration and self-movement of God's life, a trinitarian and entirely unique reality, a primarily positive and dynamic concept, and the manner and readiness of God's love for creatures. Divine aseity is said to indicate God's lordship in the act of self-binding, God's uniqueness in the act of self-revelation, and God's sufficiency in the act of self-giving. The United States military did not lose the Vietnam War! The South Vietnamese government lost the Vietnam War. With many inaccurate books, biased statements, lack of understanding, and facts, I decided to write a Vietnamese history book with emphasis on the Second Indochina War. This book will correct many of those misconceptions about the Vietnam War, answer controversial questions, and give readers a microcosm and basic dynamics of the Vietnam War. I recorded and archived highlights of the Vietnam War and the accounts of American military heroes whose sacrifices and heroic exploits might otherwise be lost to history. The poignant, riveting, and the gripping reality of war and the demons and misfortune of the Vietnam veterans will be depicted in the book. This book is intended for a variety of audiences: veterans, family members, gold star mothers, organizations, agencies, clubs, college students, faculty, and history buffs. Search-and-destroy operations in South Vietnam will be described in comprehensive detail and why President Johnson later changed the name of search-and-destroy operations to reconnaissance in force. This book will show that the worst atrocity of the Vietnam War occurred in the United States when America shunned and discriminated against its Vietnam War veterans and gold star mothers! This book is a first-person account of high school teenyboppers suddenly answering the call for duty and turning into elite combat warriors virtually overnight. Vietnam War veterans saw and experienced horrific savage and direct combat repeatedly that humans aren't intended to see. Testimonies of seasoned combat Airborne Infantry soldiers, Pathfinders, and Special Forces whose average age was twenty-one will be depicted through empirical vignettes. These first-person vignettes will describe the carnage of firefights, mortar attacks, the stench of human decay and flesh torn and broken, and the camaraderie and bonds of men at war. Do not judge these warrior-leader heroes unless you have walked a mile in their jungle boots through a jungle in a combat environment. Remember, once upon a time, we were all like you! Myths of the Vietnam War will be refuted, rebutted, and debunked. Agent Orange and other herbicides used in the Vietnam War will be discussed. This book will help all veterans, their families, and America to better understand and come to some closure and aid in catharsis. We are awesome! It is chic and vogue to be a Vietnam veteran now. The Father's business is unlike any other business. His business is the one enterprise that surpasses and supercedes all others. There is no comparison to another, because His kingdom is on a different plane, a different planet, a different world, and a different universe. The kingdom of God, of which every believer in a part, holds a place in time and history and importance that every other kingdom, past, present, and future pales in comparison. As a son of God, we have inherited His Business. In heir inherits his father's wealth and assets, but he also inherits the father's business - to carry it on. It is God's will for us to inherit more than His benefits, but also to inherit His business. It is a selfish and irresponsible son who wants to inherit the estate and wealth of the father without assuming the responsibilities of the business. The only purpose for us as sons of God is to fulfill and complete His mission -- His business. He took our place in His death at Calvary. Jesus' words at the early age of 12 should challenge us as sons of God: "I must be about my father's business. And it is God's will for us to spend the few days of the Church Age completing His mission, His business, and His work that He exemplified and defined for us in His brief ministry on earth. Fulfilling the Father's business will involve stepping into the two purposes for which God created man: Relationship - God and Man sharing a mutual commitment of love, communication, and trust. God and man relationship roles include: Father/Child; Groom/Bride; Friend/Friend. Relationship is the major theme of Volume I. Dominion - God sharing His authority and power with man to fulfill His mission and purpose, and to do His will and work on earth. God's decision to do nothing on earth through man created a valid relationship of mutual need in which God would need man and man would need God. Ryla Evans is no stranger to tough choices. She resolves never to see Noel again, nor tell him how he has irrevocably changed her future.... Following a career-ending injury, former NBA star Noel Carter has worked hard to reconstruct his life. With an eye on a congressional seat, he knows he needs a wife to complete his image. What better choice than the passionate woman who has entered his life once again? Will their reawakened desire be able to heal past betrayals and broken promises and give them a chance at a bright tomorrow? 'Unpredictable, challenging and compelling' Sophie Hannah From the first time I saw them together I knew it felt wrong. I didn't like the way he touched her or the self-conscious way he played with Molly and Luke. Joanne saw none of it of course. So I did it to prove to her that she was wrong. I did it for us. Emily's instincts tell her that best friend Joanne's new boyfriend is bad news. Emily fears for Joanne. Fears for Joanne's children. But Joanne won't listen because she's in love. So Emily watches, and waits . . . and then she makes a choice. But Emily has a past, and secrets too. And is she really as good a friend to Joanne as she claims? 'Never before have I read such a compelling, chilling read that kept me intrigued from beginning to end . . . If you adore psychological thrillers and books such as The Girl on the Train, then this is a must read!' Red Headed Book Lover Blog 'I Did It For Us held me from the off. It's compelling, slickly plotted and brilliantly written' Amanda Jennings A Journal to record moments when God steps in and we see the traces of His Hand.

When we truly have a heart that is hungry for God, He will move in our lives in amazing ways just to show us that He hears us, that He cares for us, and that He is with us. He will move to show us that He is God. Our part is to remember it, and to know that, "He who calls us, is Faithful." One of the best ways to hold our memory stones and keep our memory firmly planted, is to WRITE IT DOWN. This helps us when we go through difficult times and walk through the valley, because we can look back at what God has already done, and remind ourselves that God does not change, He helped us then, and He will help us now. This journal features: * Lessons learned from our "Face to Face With God" encounters during a changing time in our lives, written by Cypress Ministries. * Personal journaling space for reader to record special moments that The Lord stepped in and showed that He was there during their walk with God. Sometimes we ask What is God's will for my life? when we should really be asking Who should I be? The Bible has an answer: Be like the very image of God. By exploring ten characteristics of who God is—holy, loving, just, good, merciful, gracious, faithful, patient, truthful, and wise—this book helps us understand who God intends for us to be. Through Christ, the perfect reflection of the image of God, we will discover how God's own attributes impact how we live, leading to freedom and purpose as we follow his will and are conformed to his image. And if the answer is yes, why does it often feel like he's so far away? God isn't surprised by our wariness and distrust. But he has never been content to be misunderstood, either. John's gospel tells us that God sent his Son to explain himself to us—to the distant, the wounded, the skeptical, the afflicted, the ashamed, the betrayed. Walk with Abby as she follows Jesus through the book of John. In thirteen stories, we discover, through Jesus, who God is—and we also see thirteen very different modern-day believers awake to these truths in their own lives. These personal and biblical stories, along with further Scripture and application and discussion questions, will show us that God is for us, not against us. He will draw our hearts back to himself. Book jacket. Your Grace-Filled Guide to Relationships It's hard, sometimes, to get over that thing your husband said weeks ago; or to resolve that tension with your colleague at work; or to fix a lifelong friendship that's taken a bad turn. The biggest problem with relationships is they always seem to involve sinners—including ourselves. So how can we form strong, resilient bonds with people who, like us, are bound to mess up? Thankfully, it's not all on us. Through stories and biblical teaching, Jessica Thompson helps us move beyond trying to "fix" the people we interact with, and shows us a better way. Though our relationships may be marred by tension and frustration, because we are welcomed and known by Christ, they don't have to stay that way. "Nothing changes the way we relate to others more than knowing how God relates to us. Knowing how God loves us and forgives us and is gracious and merciful toward us and forbears with us inevitably affects the way we think about other people. My good friend Jessica Thompson has written a book that articulates who God is for us and then shows how that changes the way we are toward others. Thank you, Jessica, for reminding me that God always meets my mess with his mercy and my failure with his forgiveness. Knowing this makes me want to love God and others."--Tullian Tchividjian, founder of Liberate and author of One Way Love: Inexhaustible Grace for an Exhausted World "We need grace in all our relationships. So much loneliness, feeling betrayed, alienation, anger, vengeance, sadness, grief find their roots in relational conflict. Jessica humbly guides us to see that only by being a recipient of God's grace can we be agents of grace in our relationships. She does this with humor, honesty, and confession from her own experience, not with advice as a relational guru."--Justin S. Holcomb, Episcopal priest, seminary professor, and author of On the Grace of God "Everyday Grace is for all who have struggled to accept their children and honor their parents and initiate with their neighbors and forgive their spouses and respect their bosses and celebrate their rivals. But it is not filled with practical tips that would trivialize the difficulty of these things. Nor is it a book of relational psychology that would strategize a resolution to these things. Instead, it is filled with the Scriptures that speak to these things—helping us to rest in Christ's covering of all our relational failure and inviting us to change by the power of the Holy Spirit."--Nancy Guthrie, Bible teacher and author "Relational paradise was lost when our first parents fell into sin. Our desire for change in this area is anywhere between cautiously optimistic and downright cynical. What I enjoy about Everyday Grace is that Thompson simply cannot get over the one hope for true reconciliation: God, in Christ, has befriended us."--Gloria Furman, author of Glimpses of Grace and Treasuring Christ When Your Hands Are Full "Relationships are hard. We know this. Jessica Thompson knows this too and shares how she fights to take her gaze off herself and onto the only one who can help our broken relationships--Jesus. Her method doesn't come from a list of ways to implement change; rather, she focuses on the gospel that transforms hearts and minds. Be encouraged by the good news as you read Everyday Grace, for it is the gospel that is our only Hope for our relationship problem."--Trillia Newbell, author of Fear and Faith: Finding the Peace Your Heart Craves and United: Captured by God's Vision for Diversity Author: A. Keywords: Religion Many of the earliest books, particularly those dating back to the 1900s and before, are now extremely scarce and increasingly expensive. Obscure Press are republishing these classic works in affordable, high quality, modern editions, using the original text and artwork. Most Christians desire to have a better understanding of their Bibles. What they may not realize is that their desire cannot be ascertained without a better comprehension of what scripture refers to as the counsels of God. This is God's plan for the ages, or what could be termed "God's big picture." All too often contemporary Christian teaching concentrates on the comfort of the here and now, losing all connection with the eternal plan of God. How to Better Understand the Bible explains how the true Christian has been sealed by God with the Holy Spirit. He is the spirit of adoption, enabling us to cry out from our hearts, "Abba, Father." Believers have this new relationship in which God is their Father and they are His children. But not only children, for God considers us His friends, and He will not hide from us any of the things He is going to do. The Spirit has been given to believers as their teacher. His mission is to take what has been given to Jesus of the Father and declare it to us, as well as showing us things to come. Unique to the time of the Christian dispensation is the fact that the Holy Spirit has been sent down. He has revealed to us the mystery of God's will. In times past, God had kept hidden two vital truths which would serve to complete the revelation and knowledge of His counsels—the universal exaltation of Jesus Christ over all things, and the formation and existence of His body, the church. How to Better Understand the Bible organizes and explains from scripture the full knowledge of God's counsels. Every true Christian, as a member of Christ's body, has been given by God an intimate and privileged place in these counsels. Adventures on the road to real-world self-sufficiency Many of us want to increase our self-sufficiency, but few have access to the ideal 5 sunny, gently-sloping acres of rich, loamy, well-drained soil. Jenni Blackmore presents a highly entertaining, personal account of how permaculture can be practiced in adverse conditions, allowing anyone to learn to live more sustainably in a less-than-perfect world. With a rallying cry of "If we can do it, you can too," she distills the wisdom of 20 years of trial and error into a valuable teaching tool. The perfect antidote to dense, high-level technical manuals, Permaculture for the Rest of Us presents the fundamental principles of this sometimes confusing concept in a humorous, reader-friendly way. Each chapter focuses on a specific method or technique, interspersing straightforward explanations with the author's own experiences. Learn how to successfully retrofit even the smallest homestead using skills such as: No-till vs. till gardening, composting and soil-building Natural pest control and integrating small livestock Basic greenhouse construction Harvesting, preservation and more. Ideal for urban dreamers, suburbanites and country-dwellers alike, this inspirational and instructional "encouragement manual" is packed with vibrant photographs documenting the author's journey from adversity to abundance. Though we may not know it, there is a war in the spiritual realm going on all around us. We may not know it, but we are involved in it whether or not we want to be. This war is for the souls of the all the people on earth. Make no mistake: we are in the last days. Satan knows this and he has unleashed all of his fury against the earth, for he knows that his time is running out. Believers in Christ, we must now rise to the occasion and into all that God has for us. It's time for Believers in Messiah Jesus to walk in the spiritual realm; to embrace the supernatural as a normal way of life expanding the Kingdom of God. It's time for all Christians to use all the gifts of the Holy Spirit and to be filled with His spirit. It's time for every Christian to become intimate through prayer with the Creator of all things, The Great I Am! It's time to enlist in His army and learn how to defeat our enemy, Satan and bring love and peace to our land. And to recover what the enemy has stolen for us. We, as Christians have the authority from Messiah Jesus to do just that. The Army of God is a manual setting up the guidelines to walk in your destiny and the authority given to every believer. Learn how to conduct spiritual warfare and protect yourself from the enemy. Find out who you are in Messiah Jesus and how God sees you. Our battle is not against any person, the scriptures state "Love your neighbor as yourself". It is against spiritual forces that we battle against as stated in Ephesians 6:12 "For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places." (KJV) Be strong and stay close to the Lord and see what He is going to do. It's time for all of the believers of Christ to rally the troops, to enlist in the army, and to come forward in the boldness and power that has been given to us by our lord Jesus Christ. We must find our place in his army and we must take this earth for his glory. How do we have this victory in Jesus? Only by the overcoming power that comes through prayer and praise to our God. His church can no longer stand passively by and allow the enemy to run rampant throughout the world. We must take up his banner and his cross. We must dedicate ourselves completely to him. There is a great harvest that must be taken before his return. It is the charge of his church to do this. But the church presently lies in disarray and unbelief, dedicated to the worldly things instead of the heavenly things of God. It is our charge to prepare ourselves as His bride, clean, pure and spotless before Him. It is our charge to speak His word throughout the world, to work toward establishing His kingdom on earth. Surveys, articles, videos and books show many believers are not adequately grounded in key areas related to accessing God's power and distributing His blessings in different ways including the 9 Holy Spirit gifts. Points to Ponder for Charismatics & Pentecostals addresses fundamental issues where wide variations of understanding exist including: When we are born again, what happens to our 3 parts - spirit, soul (mind, will & emotions) & body 3 Holy Spirit experiences - the 'with' as Holy Spirit draws us to Jesus, the 'in' when Holy Spirit comes in us when we're born again, and the 'upon' when we're Baptized in the Holy Spirit and Holy Spirit comes upon us to give us power to be better witnesses for Jesus How Baptism in the Holy Spirit gives access to the 9 Holy Spirit gifts - prophecy, healings, tongues, miracles etc. How the above plus 4 Baptisms - Baptism into the Body of Christ, Water Baptism, Baptism of the Holy Spirit and Baptism of Fire - all fit together Points to Ponder for Charismatics & Pentecostals makes extensive use of scripture to enable believers to both receive and deliver more blessings of God by understanding the Baptism of the Holy Spirit and the 9 Holy Spirit gifts. About the Author Don Dixon finally found Jesus out of brokenness and despair at age 56. A few months later, Jesus Baptized Don in the Holy Spirit. Starting the next morning, Don had a new and overwhelming desire to share Jesus. Problem was, he didn't know how to share Jesus in words or power. A pursuit of truth led to an in-depth study of scripture related to the Baptism of the Holy Spirit and associated issues. Ceased? and 3 Points to Ponder books were the result. Freedom Didn't Ring For Us is a comprehensive outlook on Black Freedom in America. The Lord wants a connection with His people. He doesn't want us to do the work completely on our own, He doesn't want us to move ahead of him, and He does not want us to lag behind. He wants our cooperation in completing the work He has begun in us. When we lose our focus on Him and we try to fix the problem ourselves or we cannot see when He will fulfill His promise to us, so we move ahead of Him, thinking we are helping. All of a sudden we find ourselves in the middle of disasters, confusion, and bewilderment. It is at those very times when we let go that He then will reach down and pull us up. He can and will connect us back to Him when we let go of our plans and allow His plans to shine through you. It's our willingness to surrender ourselves for His purposes. This is a statement I read that sums it all up: The Lord has a great work to be done, and He will bequeath the most in the future life to those who do the most faithful, willing service in the present life. The Lord chooses His own agents, and each day under different circumstances, He gives them a trial in His plan of operation. In each truehearted endeavor to work out His plan, He chooses His agents, not because they are perfect but because, through a connection with Him, they may gain perfection. (BLJ 277.2) "A poem is like a butterfly flutter of the wing a beautiful thing. Catch a glimpse. Words alight. Then take flight. Land upon the heart." Let this beautifully written poetry, interwoven with inspirational photography, land upon your heart. In They Call Him Immanuel God With Us, poet Audrey Marie shares laughter and tears as she inspires belief in God-given dreams, reflects upon wishes, love, relationships, grieving, and the American spirit. This devotional work touches upon ordinary events, celebrations and the extraordinary events that surround us. Poems are lovely words. Dreams are glorious desires. Butterflies are God's marvelous creation that through metamorphosis becomes something beautiful. Let this work ignite your heart's desire, help you with loss and grief, make you smile about love and family, increase your appreciation for those who sacrifice for us and the American spirit, and most of all inspire you to metamorphose and reflect more of the love and beauty of Christ-Immanuel, the God who is with us. Many of us Christians and Ministry leaders think that much of what Jesus did on earth was because He was God. When we think this, we neglect Scripture where it tells us that Jesus, though always God, deliberately chose to limit His divine attributes and power. Jon Thompson, pastor and theologian, looks at Jesus' life and ministry asking the question of, "If Jesus chose to limit His divine attributes and power, how did He do all of this?" Jon discovers that Jesus is the ultimate example for us demonstrating the Convergence of three things: 1. Jesus used spiritual disciplines to walk with the Father, and develop and learn as we do: "Jesus grew in wisdom and stature and in favor with God and man" (Luke 2:52). 2. Jesus also used spiritual gifts (not His inherent power) to actually carry out His ministry while on earth. And, 3. Jesus used the promptings He received from the Father and the Spirit to lead His disciples into moments of revival. As you read this book, you will come to realize that Jesus, as God come in flesh, isn't just our Savior and our Lord, He is also our model for Christian life and ministry. Through the convergence of spiritual disciplines, spiritual gifts, and spiritual experiences, Jesus demonstrates for us how we, and our local churches, can hear from the father, carry out our ministry, and lead people into revival. Convergence shows how Jesus, though always God, deliberately chose to limit His divine attributes and power in order not only to show us who God is, but also to demonstrate for us what the normal Christian life should look like. This is a practical book that may help you build a personal best-of-the-best relationship with God. I mean the best-of-the-best Sound Spiritual relationship with your Creator, the One that also nourishes and guides you. Several other relationships the world cherishes and cultivates with God are religious and more often that of accumulating wealth, material gains, positions of power and control, awards and recognition, education, certificates, diplomas and degrees. Most people base a sound, progressive and successful relationship with God on the achievement of those mundane things. YOUR Primary Relationship with God is spiritual (Father, Spirit, Son or Soul) and should remain that of spiritual values and ideals such that in time you can say; I was caught up to the third heaven last night. I can hear the inner Sound of God crystal clear. I am illuminated by the inner Light of God, God is real to me. I have discovered the straight gate and the narrow path within me that lead to the Kingdom of God. I experience and share Divine Love every moment. I know how to be still to see God's true salvation. I can mount up with wings like the Eagle. I saw myself as Soul this morning dressed in a White Garment of Light. This book teaches you how to become a true worshipper, a Godlike being. It teaches you how to worship God in Truth and in Spirit. This One-of-a-Kind Journal is finished with a brightly colored, matte paperback cover with a beautiful scripture quote. Paul the apostles is one example of someone who discovered that God did not fail him when he faced his own difficulties; someone who received tremendous revelations from the Lord during his lifetime. Therefore one of the questions this book will consider is, "How can I rely on God when I am facing difficult circumstances?" The book will also analyse how we might trust God more, particularly when he is wanting to complete his work of grace in our lives; difficult circumstances are one way of finding God's grace. This book will also evaluate how to deal with worldliness which may have crept into our lives; without us feeling condemned at the same time. Just because we make mistakes does not mean that we have failed God somehow. Quite the contrary, when we make mistakes we can turn to God and trust him even more. Sometimes we will face difficult circumstances when we allow God to place us on the potter's wheel. We may not have directly asked God to deal with us in such a way, but the sheer fact that we want to go deeper into the things of God may have made us candidates so that he can make us fit for purpose within his Kingdom. We will consider the fact that God will pour out his blessings on the most unlikely people; just like he did when he healed Naaman in the Old Testament. If God can heal someone like Naaman, someone who did not belong to the House of Israel, then he can heal anyone including us. We will also investigate how God can help people who find themselves in the most hopeless of situations. Our sufferings are part of Christ's continued sufferings within his body the church. Because we can find God's help in our own sufferings, we can also help others who are going through difficulties in their own lives. We will discuss how God can make us fit for purpose by removing every aspect and stain of sin from our lives; without us resorting to a religious process and without feeling condemned at the same time. Like Joshua the high priest, God can remove our filthy garments and place his garments of righteousness on us because of what Christ did for us at Calvary; not because of something we have done ourselves. Finally we will consider how God can help us when we face sickness in our lives. Even though we may face terminal illness, this does not mean that it is the end of the road for God's loved one. In other words, only God's purpose for our lives will determine what happens to us in our futures. Therefore a continued trust in God is the key to walking victoriously in these last days of time, despite whatever may come against us. May God help and encourage you as you continue reading the rest of this book. As so much is against believers today it is great to know we have a marvelous army of angels who are for us, thank God for this wonderful truth. These heavenly beings are given the work of caring for believers on earth. God, who loves His people so much, granted this super concept of giving these great beings the hard job of watching over us. In our illustrations we have not portrayed them with wings. Angels can soar, from earth to heaven in moments, but to my knowledge there is not any Scripture to indicate they have wings. Cherubim have two wings and Seraphim have six wings. Im glad about the wings, because since we are going to be much like the angels when we get to heaven, it is a relief to know that we will not have to shoulder them and work to fly anywhere. I have been in many places and incidents on earth where I could have been killed, but my angels were on the job, so I am still here to tell you about them. This book is a discourse of what angels mean to us. Who they are, what they are and how they operate. Enjoy.
