Beloved community physician and veteran Dr. Michael Reece has returned home from service in Afghanistan a changed man. Recovered from a horrific injury sustained in a Taliban ambush, he has made strides in returning to his normal civilian life. That all changes when he learns he is to receive the military's highest award; the Medal of Honor. The resulting publicity as well as the shocking murder of his former childhood mentor and current United States Senator threatens to expose secrets from his past he had hoped to keep hidden forever. The aftermath forces him to make decisions that could not only threaten his own life, but the lives of those closest to him. As the hunt for the killer escalates and demons from his past return, Reece must deal with his own survivor's guilt and face hard choices that could either give him peace or destroy him. He must rely on the bonds of brotherhood forged both on the battlefield and in the horrors of the past to find a way to survive and save his family. The worlds of politics, war and crime collide in a story that will pull the reader into a world where very little is as it seems on the surface. Living in the Age of Apathy is a captivating and insightful book that takes an in depth look at how apathy could be the downfall of the United States and perhaps humanity. In this informative and engaging discussion of apathy, Army combat veteran, Gregory A. Chinama explores how apathy is the root cause in the destruction of the values and foundation of family as he experienced first-hand with his failed marriage. Chinama further explains that apathy is the ultimate reason to why the divorce rate in the U.S. continues to rise. Chinama also analyzes the youth in America and shows how many of our teenagers have adopted an "I don't care" attitude towards issues that are important in our society today. Politics is no exception; Chinama holds nothing back when identifying apathy among those whom Americans elect to be humble servants of the people. From comedians to the music we listen to, Living in the Age of Apathy will force you to question the country and the world in which we live. While a brilliant and eye-opening book, Chinama's Living in The Age of Apathy is crucial in a time of declining faith and rising doubt of a prosperous future. Achieving in an Imperfect System: Avoiding the Fifth Point of Contact: The Gray Zone By: Darren W. Hargrove SGM(R) Achieving in an Imperfect System is about your character and how to avoid situations that call your character into question. Simply put, gracefully eat sh*t instead of kissing ass to be successful and not have your character to ever be in question. That is the difference between the haves and haves-not. Even doing the right things does not always equate to the success you want or deserve. Inspire future leaders to not measure their success only by promotions; this is a trap because it is not guaranteed. Even the Monday-through-Friday, nine-to-five leader can get promoted. Remember, being successful is different from being great! Things will not always come when you want them. You may have to go through many other things to get to where you want to be in life. When is it too late to atone for past sins, both the dark truths that haunt the edges of our conscience and those buried deep within our subconscious? That was a premise Darien Winfield never considered, until he had to. After all, he overcame humble beginnings growing up on the rough streets of New York City to enjoy the fruits of his hard work and perseverance—a rising career in finance, a luxurious midtown apartment overlooking Central Park, exotic cars, and other comforts he had, until recently, only dreamed of. But, no man is an island, and crucial to Darien's success was the rock-solid foundation of a life-long friendship and a loving family. Unfortunately, all good things come to an end. Darien's American Dream becomes a nightmare after a fateful decision that reveals a cunning enemy from another realm that threatens everything he has built. In this dark urban fantasy thriller, a desperate man is pushed to his physical, mental, and spiritual limit to find a way to protect the people he loves. The ancient prophecy has ended, and the fate of the three realms are no longer bound to each other - The Crone. A voice came out of the darkness, "Come sit with me. We will make talk, we will make smoke. There is much to learn. Truth is truth, he would say. You want answers to all questions and you have not yet asked the right questions. You young people are all alike, white - red. No difference." His name - Grandfather. Like swirling wisps of smoke from a camp fire enveloping you, the essence of Native American wisdom, wonder and mystery will inspire you to: Open your mind to new possibilities Embark on new and unfamiliar territory and challenges Unleash limitations you have put on yourself Search within yourself and find answers you didn't know were there Like Einstein, Bob Anderson believes that imagination is more important than intellect. Take a break from everyday living... Sit with a "new old friend" and imagine: becoming braver and more courageous becoming a better leader having a stronger resolve making better choices finding your right life partner seeing change as your friend Bob Anderson invites you, "Come sit with me and Grandfather and journey into that 'last frontier' - your mind! This is but the first step on our journey. Grandfather will return!" This is a 130-page informative, inspirational, and entertaining Leaving Home Guidebook for young adults leaving home for the First Time to College, the Military or an away job. Written by an Iraq War Veteran and Helicopter Pilot that developed an interest in sociology and statistics and their application to happiness, success, and longevity. A perfect gift for going away. What's in this Book is most of the critical stuff a parent would want their kids to know before Leaving Home with true stories and interesting facts about a range of topics in life. I started this book as a reference for my kids before they leave out the door for college or elsewhere. I wanted to let them know what Dad and Mom thought about keeping a moderate perspective and avoiding conflict. I also wanted to input information that could give them a better shot at living the happiest, most successful, and longest lives they could. Like many parents I have spoken to, I did not want to have regrets on something I forgot to tell my child that could have helped him or her later on. So, on a range of issues from modern science, sociology, politics, religion, relationships, and life, I laid it out there. This book is for folks who see themselves as in the middle, the ones that don't tend to take extreme positions; but rather, want to try and understand the opportunities and challenges ahead in the 21st Century. My hope is that it can help young adults do a lot better in life than they would have if they would not have gotten to read it. Many thanks to those who gave me the support to get this book written and distributed to those who need it. Billy is an Iraq War Veteran with over eight years in the Marine Corps from 2001 to 2009. He served in two deployments to the Middle East in 2005 and 2007 as a CH-46E helicopter pilot. He received Norwich University's William D. Hassett Prize in Political Science as a senior in college in 2000. His military awards include the Navy and Marine Corps Commendation Medal, Air Medal-Strike (4 Awarded), Global War on Terrorism Expeditionary medal (Kuwait), Sea Service Deployment Ribbon (2 Awarded), Iraq Campaign Medal(with one Bronze Service Star), the Global War on Terrorism Service Medal, and a Boeing Rescue Citation for the evacuation of civilian casualties in Iraq in 2005. He has a BA in Political Science from Norwich University (2001) and a Masters in Business Administration from University of Wisconsin-Consortium (2013). Billy has also worked in manufacturing for 5 years serving as a Quality Supervisor, Quality Engineer, Six Sigma Black Belt, and Quality Manager. He has a number of certifications from Villanova University in Six Sigma and Lean. His intrigue with the latest developments in International Affairs, Sociology and Cultural Conflict, Technology and Science, Health, and Mathematics is evident in this book. He hopes the book helps to serve as an objective fall back for young adults when making life decisions. This report is designed to help congressional offices obtain information about major awards given by Congress and the President. It lists details about the establishment, criteria, selection process, and presentation of each of the major presidential and congressional awards: Congressional Award, Congressional Gold Medal, Medal of Honor, Presidential Citizens Medal, and Presidential Medal of Freedom. Brief entries are provided for additional awards made by the President including two new military medals for service in the Global War on Terrorism (GWOT): the GWOT Expeditionary Medal and the GWOT Service Medal. Contact information is provided for the organization responsible for making the award and for more data about an award. References to CRS products on awards are also given. This report will be updated as necessary. "In the Company of Soldiers is an entertaining and honest read. This book takes the reader behind-the-scenes of the Iraq war and offers a perspective not often seen on television news or in the newspapers. It is interesting to hear about day-to-day life in a war zone. It is also interesting to learn about the little details of the everyday life of a soldier such as how the bathroom situation works, etc. The idea of telling the narrative through a daily journal is great and offers a good variety of ups and downs since the reader lives each day with the author. This book took a lot of courage and fortitude to write."--Writer's Digest 16th Annual International Self-Published Book Awards

People Other than Grunts is a compilation of true stories told through the eyes of a 12 year veteran in the U.S. Army. The story tells of one man's triumphs and pitfalls throughout serving in Operation Enduring Freedom and Operation Iraqi Freedom. Myles Page tells of his experiences while juggling the roles of Husband, Father, Friend, and Soldier. POG is a story of overcoming physical and psychological weakness and rising above social norms. A story finally told from an enlisted soldier's unique perspective. Command Sergeant Major (CSM) Bradley P. Jones in his wildest dreams, never thought he would make a career out of the military. Like many, he joined for the college tuition assistance. He was determined to serve out his first and only enlistment, and then move on to bigger and better. He managed to leave the military - called a break in service - for four years, but the military never left his thoughts or his system. There was something about serving his country that constantly called to him through his missionary service in south America and then into his university studies. A calling Bradley finally succumbed to, reenlisting back into an AH-64 Apache helicopter battalion near the university. From there, his service led to a career he loved working on Apaches as a full-time federal employee, while starting a family with his wife as a newlywed. While serving in Kuwait on September 11, 2001, his life and career, along with everyone in uniform, changed along with the rest of the country. From there, his career trajectory seemed to him to be predetermined, finally culminating in his appointment to serve his beloved fellow soldiers as the top enlisted member in the battalion. In Treading the Deep, Bradley's humor and faith promoting experiences, restores readers beliefs in the tenacity of the human spirit and its ability to ultimately overcome, no matter the trials or circumstances. I wrote this book in memory of William Dean Richardson in hopes that you would be able to have a sense of who he was as a child, adult and soldier. As you read this book you will be told the story of a young man who made the brave decision to become an American Soldier. Who dedicated his life in the most Noble and Honorable way that anyone can serve his or her country. Medals and decorations awarded to CPL William Dean Richardson include: The Purple Heart, the Bronze Star with Valor, the Meritorious Service Medal, the Army Commendation Medal, the Army Achievement Medal, the National Defense Service Medal, the Global War on Terrorism Expeditionary Medal, the Global War on Terrorism Service Medal, the Combat Infantry Badge, and the Parachutist Badge. Thank you to all those of the 1-41 Infantry unit, A Company, 1st Battalion, 2nd Battalion, 70th Armored Regiment, 3rd Brigade and 1st Armored Division. contains professional materials needed for a successful career as an Air Force officer, from cadet to general, both active duty and reserves. Karen Wright-Chisolm grew up in Charleston, South Carolina, the 7th child of eleven children, born to the late Benjamin Wright and the Late Adell Meyers Wright both of Charleston, S.C. Karen attended the public schools of Charleston and graduated from Burke High School in 1973. Karen is a Retired Veteran of nearly 27 years from the United States Air Force, retiring as a Chief Master Sergeant, the highest enlisted rank only obtained by 1 % of the force. Karen is also retired from Civil Service with over 21 years of service as a civil service employee. Karen is noted as being the first black and first female to serve as Superintendent of the 315th Mission Support Squadron on the Charleston Air Force Base. Mrs. Wright-Chisolm's professional education includes: Doctoral of Management Candidate, Ambassador Bible College and Seminary, Doctoral Management Candidate, Organizational Leadership - University of Phoenix, Dual Masters of Art Degree in Human Resources Management/Human Resources Development, Webster University; B.S. Degree in Human Resources Management, Southern Wesleyan University and Associate of Arts Degree in Human Resource Management/Personnel Administration, Community College of the Air Force (CCAF). Her principle awards and decorations include: Meritorious Service Medal with one device, Air Force Commendation Medal, Air Force Achievement Medal with two oak leaf clusters, Air Force Outstanding Unit Award with six devices, Air Reserve Forces Meritorious Service Award with five devices, National Defense Service Medal with one device, Global War on Terrorism Service Medal, Military Outstanding Volunteer Service Medal with one device, Air Force Longevity Service Award with four devices, Armed Forces Reserve Medal with 1 "M" device and bronze hourglass, USAF NCO PME Graduate Ribbon with 1 device and Air Force Training Ribbon and Civil Service Award. Karen loves God and family. Karen's favorite scripture is Proverbs 3: 5-6, NIV; "Trust in the Lord" with all Thine heart, and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways submit to him, and he will make your paths straight." Her motto is: "Never Underestimate the Power of Someone Else's Struggles Unless You Have Walked in their Shoes". It was not an accident. God meant it to be. The once strong soldier was paralyzed, helpless and discouraged but God made him walk again. It was God's miracle on display. This book will encourage and reassure people who are hurting. God is still in the healing and saving business today. Glory to His Name! Why have there been so many violent conflicts in 2014? Aftermath offers an insider's view of how each conflict started, what it means, and the common thread driving increased warfare around the world. By giving voice to the experiences of a new generation of veterans Aftermath provides a novel framework for managing global affairs. Aftermath addresses the recent conflicts which have dominated the world stage: civil war in Ukraine, ISIS in Syria and Iraq, Boko Haram in Nigeria, drug wars in Mexico, violence in west Africa following an unprecedented outbreak of Ebola, global mass demonstrations and protests, troubling incidents with nuclear weapons, and war between Israel and HAMAS have dominated headlines. While our leaders seem unable to explain or to stop violent conflicts from spreading Aftermath provides fresh insights and solutions. The old frameworks of understanding global affairs are no longer adequate to manage international relations in the 21st century. Aftermath will shape the next generation of thinking on global affairs for elected officials, military planners, multi-national businesses, and students of current events. Invaluable information for a successful tour as an American soldier. Includes Army Website Directory and full-color section on Awards, Decorations, Badges. Could a major Hollywood star be kidnapped on Oscar night in a drug war of revenge against the United States? Enrique Vega is one of the most notorious drug kingpins in the world and controls a family whose powerbase spreads across Mexico, Central and South America. As the godfather is to the mafia, Vega is to the drug world. Cartel Este controls drug trafficking, money laundering, prostitution, and politicians. Vega is powerful and untouchable so he thought. A joint drug task force of United States and Mexican authorities track his movements and strike at the throat of Cartel Este. Vega is arrested and flown to an American military jail to await trial. A new drug war of revenge is unleashed! Special Agent Jake Stein of Homeland Security Investigations/ICE is back, and this time, hes up against a life-and-death struggle. Cartel Este keeps turning up the heat and kidnaps a major Hollywood star on Oscar night to hold for ransom until

Vega is returned or the actor will die. The clock is ticking in a life-and-death race against time in a drug war of revenge! The NIGERIAN CAPTAIN signaled for the drivers to get ready, and he turned and signaled for me to sit with him at the front of the lead truck. There was no time for rehearsals, the enemy was already within and there was no Orders process. I sat there not knowing what was going to become of us once we start engaging the enemy. In almost every military operation, there is a need for proper planning, but we had failed one of the five fundamentals factors of SUN TZU, the "Methods,": 'Failing to plan is planning to fail.' There is a popular quote in the United States Military: "Prior Planning Prevents Piss Poor Performance," I wish we had time for prior planning. The capital of Freetown was on fire and smoke could be seen below as we descended the hills of CONGO CROSS and it was just a matter of time before we are welcomed by the enemy. The element of surprise was not possible, and the enemy had the upper hand, but we had the will to retake FREETOWN and make it Free again. This book is a joke. Literally. It is over 130 "blank" pages because there are NO reasons why the U.S. Navy is better than the U.S. Army! If you feel the same way, you must buy this book. Proudly display it on your coffee table or on your bookshelf. It makes the perfect gift for your friends who feel that same way you do. (or gag gift for your Navy buddies.) It is a very quick read. Recommend it to everyone you know. (More Books By Jeff: <http://www.allthereasons.net>) Lt. Michael Patrick Murphy, a Navy SEAL, earned the Medal of Honor on 28 June 2005 for his bravery during a fierce fight with the Taliban in the remote mountains of eastern Afghanistan. The first to receive the nation's highest military honor for service in Afghanistan, Lt. Murphy was also the first naval officer to earn the medal since the Vietnam War, and the first SEAL to be honored posthumously. A young man of great character, he is the subject of Naval Special Warfare courses on character and leadership, and an Arleigh Burke-class guided missile destroyer, naval base, school, post office, ball park, and hospital emergency room have been named in his honor. A bestselling book by the sole survivor of Operation Red Wings, Marcus Luttrell, has helped make Lt. Murphy's SEAL team's fateful encounter with the Taliban one of the Afghan war's best known engagements. Published on the 5th anniversary of the engagement, SEAL of Honor also tells the story of that fateful battle, but it does so from a very different perspective being focused on the life of Lt. Murphy. This biography uses his heroic action during this deadly firefight in Afghanistan, as a window on his character and attempts to answer why Lt. Murphy readily sacrificed his life for his comrades. SEAL of Honor is the story of a young man, who was noted by his peers for his compassion and for his leadership being guided by an extraordinary sense of duty, responsibility, and moral clarity. In tracing Lt. Murphy's journey from a seemingly ordinary life on New York's Long Island, to that remote mountainside a half a world away, SEAL of Honor will help readers understand how he came to demonstrate the extraordinary heroism and selfless leadership that earned him the nation's highest military honor. Moreover, the book brings the Afghan war back to the home front, focusing on Lt. Murphy's tight knit family and the devastating effect of his death upon them as they watched the story of Operation Red Wings unfold in the news. The book attempts to answer why Lt. Murphy's service to his country and his comrades was a calling faithfully answered, a duty justly upheld, and a life, while all too short, well-lived. In May 1921 the submarine R-14 becomes stranded 140 miles from the nearest port with no fuel and must improvise a way to survive. The solution is unusual, and elegant. A Memoir about Life Changes, Justice, and Love In this thought-provoking memoir, Life Sessions, single mother Adanna Rudder shares her mental battle to discover her truth and find her purpose on earth. This mental battle broke the chains that held Adanna's mind in slavery for 33 years. At age 33, Adanna volunteered for a job that changed her life. This led her to become a social change agent and a seeker of her truth. It also led her to understand that she needed to make some serious life changes in order to save her life and her daughter's life. Adanna shares her journey by turning the spotlight on herself. She shares intimate life experiences that includes her: * Fight to break a vicious family cycle* Struggle with self-hate* Fight for justice and so much more Adanna's past has molded her into the woman that she is today. She is learning from it and using it to create a life full of love, peace, and happiness. Read it and then join her by becoming a Spiritual Warrior. Based on the real events at the end of World War II this thrilling military novel has increased relevance in today's climate of terrorism. Flight of the Valkyrie centers on an attempt by Heinrich Himmler, member of the doomed Nazi hierarchy to infiltrate the Manhattan Project and capture the newly developed atomic bomb intending to use it as leverage to mitigate Germany's surrender terms. Receiving classified intelligence of the project's progress from a mole within the Russian spy network a top-secret team of German commandos lands on the coast of Maine and launches a ruthless campaign of blackmail and forgery. The gripping story is inspired by real-life intrigues of Heinrich Himmler, head of the SS, who instigates a special underground organization in a desperate attempt at self preservation at the time of Germany's surrender in 1945. All the hallmarks of a great espionage thriller are here, enhanced by the cast of endlessly complex characters, the fresh and distinctive voice of this first-time novelist, and the note of authenticity of the best historical fiction.

Waging Gendered Wars examines, through the analytical lens of feminist international relations theory, how U.S. military women have impacted and been affected by the wars in Iraq and Afghanistan. Although women were barred from serving formally in ground combat positions within the U.S. armed forces during both wars, U.S. female soldiers are being killed in action. By examining how U.S. military women's agency as soldiers, veterans, and casualties of war affect the planning and execution of war, Whaley Eager assesses the ways in which the global world of international politics and warfare has become localized in the life and death narratives of female service personnel impacted by combat experience, homelessness, military sexual trauma, PTSD, and the deaths of fellow soldiers. For Sergeant Brad Kasal, a U.S. Marine who served in the Iraq War, November 14, 2004, is a day that he'll never forget. During a battle against insurgents in Fallujah, Iraq, he used his body to shield an injured soldier from an enemy grenade. Through this courageous act, Sgt. Kasal saved that soldier's life while putting his own at great risk. This is just one of many acts of courage recounted in Today's Marine Heroes, a riveting book about U.S. Marines serving in Iraq and Afghanistan. Large action photos, fact boxes, and maps enrich these true stories of bravery and valor. Updated edition of the essential guide for enlisted soldiers in the U.S. Army This military reference guide, completely revised for the current army, is targeted at young men and women who have enlisted in the U.S. Army or are thinking about doing so. The book is a must-have resource for a successful career or tour as an American soldier and covers duties and responsibilities, promotion and career opportunities, real-world issues, customs and traditions, uniforms and insignia, pay and benefits, physical fitness, and personal and family matters.
