However, as soon as they leave class, their ability to do the problems and complete their homework diminishes with each passing hour. Often times this results in students struggling to complete their homework on their own. Even worse, the frustration can lead to students quitting on the material altogether and falling behind in the course. As a result, an entire class can fall behind as instructors attempt to keep everyone on the same page. With the Financial and Managerial Accounting 2e Student Learning System, all features of the student textbook, study resources and online homework system are designed to work together to provide students with more I Get It! moments. The consistency, repetition and strong details throughout the entire student learning system allow students to achieve success both inside and outside the classroom while keeping both instructors and students on track.

Principles of Financial Accounting Nov 18 2019 Principles of Financial Accounting offers balanced, flexible content supported by an array of truly integrated print and technology supplements. Whether an instructor wants to present a user or procedural orientation, incorporate new instructional strategies, develop students' core skills and competencies, or integrate technology into the classroom, the 2002e edition provides a total solution. This text--intended for use in a single semester or one-quarter course--assumes no previous training in accounting or business and is appropriate for both majors and non-majors. Principles of Financial Accounting is designed for financial accounting programs that prefer to start with a sole proprietorship approach and move at a slower pace than a corporate financial accounting course. New! Blackboard Course Cartridges and WebCT e-Packs deliver course content over the Internet and can be used in a traditional classroom setting or as a complete distance learning solution. Customized course materials include reviews, quizzes, activities, solutions, PowerPoint slides, and more. New! Teaching Accounting Online, an interactive Web-based workshop, allows faculty to design and deliver online accounting courses. New! Discussion and assignment materials include more financial statements and excerpts from real company reports to promote decision making through the use of real-world financial information. New! An increased focus on cash flow throughout the text highlights the effect of business activities on cash flow. New! "Focus on Business" boxes emphasize business strategy as it relates to the key themes of ethics, practice, technology, and international issues. Each box provides insights into real companies, including start-ups and e-commerce businesses. New! "Decision Points," based on excerpts from annual reports and business journals, promote critical thinking and decision making by presenting students with a situation that requires them to make a decision using accounting information. Decision Points in the financial chapters are presented from "A User's Focus" while the Decision Points in the managerial chapters provide "A Manager's Focus." New! In most chapters, the opening Learning Objective highlights the focus on management by exploring how managers use accounting information to make decisions. New! The text examines performance measurement by integrating the concept of using financial information in performance evaluation. New! An annotated Chapter 1 helps students understand the purpose and value of the book's pedagogical framework and how to use it to their advantage.

Financial & Managerial Accounting, Chapters 15-23, Student Value Edition + Myaccountinglab With Full Ebook Student Access Code Package Nov 30 2020 For Principle of Accounting Courses Students understand (or get it) right after you do a problem in class. However, as soon as they leave class, their ability to do the problems and complete their homework diminishes with each passing hour. Often times this results in students struggling to complete their homework on their own. Even worse, the frustration can lead to students quitting on the material altogether and falling behind in the course. As a result, an entire class can fall behind as instructors attempt to keep everyone on the same page. With the Financial and Managerial Accounting 2e Student Learning System, all features of the student textbook, study resources and online homework system are designed to work together to provide students with more I Get It! moments. The consistency, repetition and strong details throughout the entire student learning system allow students to achieve success both inside and outside the classroom while keeping both instructors and students on track.
